 VISTAS ANNUAL WINTER SOCIAL
 at the Music Academy of the West
 Lotte Lehmann Hall
 2:00 to 5:00 PM

ACT II

Following their success performing five ten-minute plays at last year's Winter Social, the VISTAS Repertory Acting Troupe was urged to repeat their efforts for this year's event.

Doubling the size of the troupe to fifteen, and going beyond the two-person, male-female genre held to last year, the group has prepared "ACT II," six more short plays.

As before, this year's plays portray a wide variety of situations.

Among other people, you'll meet Lisa, an airline ticket agent who deals with her customers in a unique way; Mark and Paul who test their negotiating skills at an executive training camp; Brenda, a very persistent telephone research consultant (not a telemarketer, please!); and Lisa and Bob, a couple facing a big crisis in their married life.

This year's production is directed by drama professional Gerry Hansen who also assisted with auditions and casting.

You won't want to miss ACT II!

Of course, the usual gourmet spread will be served following the entertainment.

Be sure to sign up now!
